DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

"Favorite Prescription," too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are made, and don't forget that no other medicines put up for sale through druggists for domestic use can show any such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public, in favor of the alcoholic compounds.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and draging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing as above. All correspondence is treated as sacredly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questionings and personal "examinations" are avoided.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative, two or three cathartic.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Woman Shot by Husband

Mrs. B. Leslie Roturean, a Savanah, Ga., society woman, is at a hospital suffering from a bullet wound in her side which the doctors think will prove fatal and her husband is being held without bail to wait the result of her injuries. Both husband and wife stated at first that the wound was accidental, but when Mrs. Roturean was told that her life was in danger she confessed that she was shot during a quarrel with her husband, and while both were struggling for possession of the pistol. Mrs. Roturean said she chided her husband for staying out late. He retorted bitterly, and then she struck him several blows with a riding whip. Roturean, according to his wife, snatched the whip and lashed her severely across her bosom and shoulders. She then got a pistol and tried to shoot her husband, but he seized her and struggled to take the pistol. Just as he got the pistol away from her it was discharged and she fell. She will not say, however, that her husband deliberately shot her. The Rotureans are connected with Savannah's old families, and have been prominent socially. Mrs. Rotureau is one of the handsomest women in Savannah.

Will Not Visit San Francisco.

A dispatch from Tokio says that the Japanese government has decided that on account of anti-Japanese agitation on the Pacific coast, the training squadron will not visit the Pacific coast, but will go as far as Honolulu only.

Mr. Masanao Hanihara, second secretary of the Japanese Embassy, last night said that Viscount Aoki, the Japanese Ambassador to the United States, has not been officially notified of the Tokio government's decision not to allow the training squadron to proceed to San Francisco. "The visit of a Japanese fleet to the Pacific coast at this time," said Mr. Hanihara, "might occasion a renewal of the controversy, and, as the Japanese government is desirous of maintaining the present cordial relations with this government it has been considering for several weeks the advisability of postponing the visit of the fleet to the Pacific coast.

Murder and Suicide in Roanoke.

Wallace C. Mays, aged 25 years, of Staunton, yesterday afternoon shot and killed Mrs. Etta Murray, aged 40, the wife of Frank Murray, in Roanoke, and then blew out his own brains, falling at the feet of the woman he had murdered. The tragedy occurred in the Murray home, in Roanoke, and was witnessed by Miss Lelia Witt, a sister of Mrs. Murray, and the latter's three-year-old baby girl. The cause of the killing was jealousy, and a number of letters found on the dead man's body and in his valise went to show that he had planned the murder and suicide and that Mrs. Murray had charged Mays with thinking more of her (Mrs. Murray's) sister than he did of her (Mrs. Murray). Mays was unmarried. Mrs. Murray leaves a husband and five small children.

Senator Bailey.

Senator J. W. Bailey and a number of his friends met in conference in Austin, Texas, yesterday, and decided to resist to the utmost the proposition now pending in the legislature to investigate certain charges that have been made against him. No vote on the resolution which provides for this investigation was had in the House yesterday.

The anti-Bailey strength in the House and Senate is apparently growing. It is stated by Senator Senter, who is taking the lead in the fight on Bailey, that [illegible] members of the legislature [illegible] a pledge to vote for the investigation of the charges against Mr. Bailey, that they will not cast their votes for United States Senator until an investigation has been finished.

To Recover Money Given for Masses.

A dispatch from Paris says that the separation of church and State has given rise to many suits for the recovery of money bequeathed to the church for the purpose of creating perpetual endowments for the celebration of masses for the repose of the souls of the departed. In a test case yesterday the First Civil Tribunal of the Seine decided that such endowments were not recoverable by the heirs of the departed, but must ultimately go to the institutions destined to receive the property of vestries holding bequests as trustees. At the trial at Toulon yesterday of the vicar of the Cathedral, it was decided that mass celebrated without making a declaration does not constitute a violation of the law of 1881.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great North Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a large tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflammation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life." Guaranteed best cough and cold cure at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommend and sell

Released on Bail.

The eight men held responsible by the coroner's jury in Washington Wednesday evening for the Baltimore and Ohio wreck at Terra Cotta have furnished satisfactory surety for their appearance, when wanted by the grand jury, and all have been released from custody. Four of the men were released on their personal recognizances. This action, it was announced at the District attorney's office, will have the effect, practically, of holding only the four required to give surety bonds for the action of the grand jury, although indictments may be returned against any one or all of them.

Investigation into the charges against the three Baltimore and Ohio Railroad officials, the trainmen and Operator Dutrow, made by the coroner's jury, will be undertaken by the present grand jury within the ensuing two weeks. Several important matters have precedence over the Terra Cotta wreck case, but it is the intention of the United States district attorney's office, as announced last night, to open the wreck inquiry as soon as possible.

Horsewhipped.

Residents of Harford avenue, Baltimore, were treated to a real old-fashioned horsewhipping last night, when Mrs. Jennie McCauley, an enraged wife, thrashed Miss Gail Penn. The latter charged Mrs. McCauley with assault, but after hearing the testimony, Justice Keplinger dismissed the case, advising Mrs. McCauley to be less strenuous in the future. Providing herself with a horsewhip, Mrs. McCauley went to the Penn house and waited. When the unsuspecting object of her anger emerged from her home, Mrs. McCauley waded in. Miss Penn ran for the nearest cover but Mrs. McCauley followed, raining blows, and was wielding the whip mercilessly, when bystanders stepped between the two and brought the affair to a close.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. It's safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 11, 1907.

AT THE thirteenth conference of the foreign mission boards of the United States and Canada in Philadelphia yesterday, plans for a world-wide evangelization campaign were discussed by the conference, which is composed of ministers and laymen of nearly all Protestant denominations. Dr. S. B. Capen, chairman of the "haystack" committee of business men, read his report on "What is Expected of the Laymen of the Church in the Way of Evangelizing the World." Dr. Capen said, in part:

There is a general awakening throughout the Christian world toward the evangelization of those persons who so far have not found Christ. That labor is to be done not alone by the clergy of the churches of various denominations, but is to be done with the aid of the laity.

According to reports received in Rome, Mahamedanism is redivivus and the religion of the "prophet" is spreading over a large area in the Orient as well as in Russia. This intelligence has come as a setback to many, both Catholics and Protestants, who have assumed that the cross is gradually supplanting the crescent in the East. Many years ago it was observed that the harvest was great and the laborers few. From the above it seems that the fields are still white.

IF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is willing to inform the House of Representatives whether he did write the letter purporting to be his, urging that no State legislation be enacted limiting the salaries to be paid officers of life insurance companies, and just why he wrote such a letter, the House will be ready to receive the information. A resolution asking the President to explain the correspondence published in the Philadelphia North American yesterday was introduced in the House that day by Representative Robinson, of Arkansas. As it has emanated from a democratic source, there seems little likelihood that it will be passed by the House. It will produce discussion, however, and this, many members believe, will have the effect of eliciting a statement from Mr. Roosevelt.

WE ARE told that "earthquakes in divers places" will precede the consummation of the present age, and such seems to be in evidence at present. Dispatches show that two severe earthquake disturbances occurred in Norway and Sweden and a part of Russia at 1:30 yesterday morning. In the northern and northeastern sections of Baltimore county Md., a shock of earthquake early yesterday morning awakened residents and shook houses. An earthquake is also reported at Menominee, Mich. Hugh Clements, the London meteorologist, has predicted there will be earthquakes in the United States tomorrow.

IT SEEMS that it is no longer necessary to go down from Jerusalem to Jericho in order to fall among thieves who are not satisfied with wounding and robbing their victims, but who also strip and leave them in the road. Frank Gobit, a woodchopper, was found a day or two ago perfectly nude and straying aimlessly in the woods in the vicinity of Meriden, Conn. He said he had fallen among thieves who had murderously assaulted him and after rifling his pockets had stripped him of his clothing and left him to perish from cold. His rescuers covered the unfortunate man with blankets and carried him to a house where he was cared for.

REV. JOHN W. DOUGHERTY, pastor of the Apostolic Church in Richmond, according to a dispatch from that city, has instituted a new departure by refusing to conduct the funeral ceremonies over the remains of Joseph Heywood, who was killed by the fall of a smokestack several days ago. Mr. Dougherty, in a public statement, declares that from deep study of the Bible, it is his opinion that it is no part of a minister's duty to either conduct funerals or perform marriages. He quoted at length from the Bible to prove his contentions.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Jan. 11.

Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, declared today that the railroad companies are making a very determined effort towards relieving the alarming fuel shortage situation in the northwest. He said, "they are doing the best they can under the circumstances. They are seriously handicapped by shifting snow. The line may be cleared after a week's work and then the snow of a night will blot out everything." The Senator says his only fear now is for the safety of the numerous homesteaders. There are 15,000 people in west North Dakota residing on isolated claims.

Friends of Champ Clark, of Missouri, claims today that they have secured sufficient pledged votes to elect him over John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, for the minority leadership in the Sixtieth Congress.

It is announced at the Department of Justice that the decision of the government to try by court martial Corporal Knowles who shot and seriously wounded Captain Macklin of the 25th infantry at El Reno, Okla., was occasioned by the discovery of a strange omission in the federal laws. There is no provision for the trial in the federal courts for assault with a deadly weapon, although there is a law covering murder, when the offense is committed within the federal jurisdiction.

The directorship of the Bureau of American Republics was assumed today by John Barrett, formerly U. S. Minister to Colombia. Mr. Barrett has many ideas which he will put into effect in the works of the bureau. His chief duty at first will be confined to selecting a site for a new million dollar home of the bureau for the construction of which Andrew Carnegie has just donated $750,000. The board of governors will pass on the site.

Alex. Forbes, of New York, and Henry W. Woods, of Richmond, representating the seedsmen, today appeared before the Senate committee on agriculture for the purpose of endorsing the recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture that the free distribution by the government of common varieties of seeds should be stopped and that the appropriation by Congress should be confined to the dissemination of seeds of rare and choice kinds.

By a vote of 9 to 7 the House committee on the judiciary today defeated a proposition to consider the Hepburn-Dolliver bill, which makes liquors entering a temperance State through the medium of interstate traffic subject to the laws of the State. Representative Littlefield, who last year fought the bill and whose vote prevented its being acted upon by the committee at that time, has now taken the main place in the fight to have the bill reported.

Leonard T. Brown, 25 years old a harness maker at 2124 4th street was discovered at 3 o'clock this morning in his place of business nearly dead from inhailing illuminating gas. It is believed he attempted suicide. W. T. Lowe was made suspicious by the fumes and found Brown in a serious condition.

Friends of Col. E. S. Pierce, deputy sergeant-at-arms of the House, are preparing to run him for Congress to succeed to the vacancy caused by the elevation of Representative Wm. Alden Smith, of Grands Rapids, Mich., to the United States Senate.

Today the bail of Engineer Hildebrand and Conductor Hoffmier, of the train that met with the accidest at Terra Cotta, D. C., was reduced to $5,000.

It is announced that the President will probably appoint Arthur F. Statter, of Walla Walla, to succeed Charles H. Keep, as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, on Keep's retirement February 1. Shatter is at present private Secretary to Secretary Shaw. He is 31 years of age.

"If the efforts of the administration to amend the Chinese exclusion laws will give the Pacific coast members the opportunity they seek to widely disseminate their views," declared Representative McKinly, of California, today, "we will demand a hearing on the House foreign affairs committee on Monday and if the committee reports out the bill we will lick it in the House. The upshot of the matter will be to make us stronger in our demand for Japanese exclusion, for as the country learns of the conditions of Oriental labor, it is rapidly coming to our way of thinking".

President Roosevelt has suggested to President Caceres, of Santo Domingo, the appointment of W. E. Pulliam, at present deputy collector of customs at Manila, as administrator of customs for the Dominican government to succeed Col. George Colton who has been appointed collector at Manila. President Caceres has replied that Mr. Pulliam is acceptable and will be given charge of the republic's income. Mr. Pulliam was appointed to the Philippine customs service from Kentucky. The office is under the Dominican government and is in no way connected with the United States government, although monthly reports of the collections are filed with the insular bureau here. They average about $250,000 a month. Of this sum fifty-five per cent is deposited with the National City Bank in New York as a trust fund for Santo Domongo's creditors.

The Book Investigation.

Nothing is more talked of in Capitol circles than the position in which State Librarian John P. Kennedy has been placed by the testimony of witnesses who were examined Wednesday by the legislative committee investigating the school book question. Kennedy was declared by witnesses to be buying books for the traveling libraries almost exclusively from Putnam & Sons, of New York, at prices far in excess of the prices at which he might have bought the same books from Virginia retail dealers, and it was further in evidence that Kennedy had received an offer of $2,500 from Putnam & Son to write a history of Virginia.

Kennedy was placed on the stand late yesterday afternoon. Superintendent of Public Instruction Eggleston was on the stand when Chairman Byrd stopped the proceedings to give the librarian a chance to testify, offering at the same time to wait until today in order to give him a chance to become acquainted with the proceedings.

He denied in toto the accusations made against him, saying that he had never received an order to write a history of Virginia from Putnam & Son. He admitted, however, that he had received such an offer. He said that everything he had done had been in the interest of the State. He will be placed on the stand again today.

A feature of Wednesday's hearing was the testimony of Joseph D. Eggleston, superintendent of public instruction, who read a typewritten statement of 26 pages, in which he strongly argued the advantages of the single test as opposed to the multiple. In the course of the statement Superintendent Eggleston frankly admitted that at one time, when he was connected with the schools of North Carolina, he was against the single test, but proved by his earnest effort today that he was mistaken then but is doing better now.

SCENE IN THE HOUSE.

The House late yesterday took on the appearance of the closing days of the Fifty-fifth Congress, commonly known as the "War Congress," when altercations between members were frequent.

Late in the afternoon Mr. Gaines, of Tennessee, and Mr. Mahon, of Pennsylvania, were only prevented from meeting in a personal encounter by the intervention of members. Mr. Gaines was making a speech on his bill to "dock" members' pay for absence from the House, and was being twitted by both sides of the chamber, to his evident embarrassment, when he charged Mr. Mahon with being absent from the House 95 per cent. of the time.

Previous to this sweeping assertion Mr. Gaines had read excerpts from the records in relation to the withholding of pay in the Fifty-third Congress and the part Mr. Mahon had played at that time.

Mr. Mahon remained silent throughout Mr. Gaines's speech, with the exception of interjecting a remark or two at the beginning. When Mr. Gaines had concluded Mr. Mahon rose. He explained how, in the Fifty-third and Fifty fifth Congresses he had had $7,000 due him, and that the then Speaker Crisp had given him an order on the sergeant-at-arms for the amount, which was paid. Then, coming to the crux of Mr. Gaines's charge, Mr. Mahon thundered:

"Any man who charges me with being away from this House 95 per cent. of the time tells an untruth."

Mr. Gaines started down the aisle from his seat. "No man shall tell me I lie!" exclaimed the Tennesseean.

Then Mr. Mann, of Illinois, who was in the chair, took a hand in the altercation.

Both men were ordered to their seats, Mr. Mahon obeying the command, while Mr. Gaines stood two seats away from the center of the chamber, shaking both fist and head at the Pennsylvanian.

When order had been restored Mr. Mahon again rose. Having been cautioned by the chair that it was against the rules to address a member in the second person, he measured his words, saying he would speak in the "fourth person." He then said:

"The charge of the gentleman from Tennessee that I am away from this House 95 per cent. of my time is a deliberate falsehood."

With a rush Mr. Gaines reached the center of the chamber, making directly toward the gentleman from Pennsylvania, insisting as he went that no man could call him a liar without personal chastisement.

The House was in an uproar by this time, the chair adding to the noise, if not to the confusion, by pounding the desk with his gavel. His efforts finally caused the head of the gavel to fly off and it bounded into the body of the House, almost striking one of the members.

The rush of Mr. Gaines upon his adversary brought a dozen members before the Speaker's desk. Messrs. Allie James, of Kentucky; Taylor, of Alabama; Bell, of Georgia; Williams, of Mississippi, the minority, and Stafford, of Wisconsin, grabbed Mr. Gains, who, resisting, was borne back to his seat.

Mr. Mahon, standing in the first aisle on the republican side, seemed to wait for the impact which never came. With Mr. Gaines back in his seat, the Pennsylvanian continued his speech of explanation as to how he came to be connected with the invoking of an old statute compelling members to forfeit pay for the time absent from the House. He said that the charge that he was away from the House 95 per cent. of the time was a lie on its face, and that he was there 95 per cent. of the time, as every member who cared to inquire could ascertain.

Mr. Lacey, of Iowa, had read the statute relating to the docking of members' pay, and he was followed by Mr. Grosvenor, of Ohio, who explained the reasons for the statute. Mr. De Armond, of Missouri, asked that the minority views of the judiciary committee on the statute be printed. While this colloquy was in progress the friends of Messrs. Gaines and Mahon were engaged in an effort to bring about a reconciliation, in which they were successful, and, at its conclusion, Mr. Mahon rose to a question of personal privilege. He stated that he did not desire to impugn the motive which prompted Mr. Gaines to utter what was an untruth about his absence from the House, but he desired to say that his informant was incorrect.

He had no desire to offend the gentlemen from Tennessee, whom he classed among his friends, but he wanted Mr. Gaines to understand the person from whom he obtained his information misrepresented the facts. Not to be outdone in chivalry, Mr. Gaines immediately arose, and, showing deep feeling, said that the gentleman from Pennsylvania had always been his friend, but that he had been goaded beyond endurance. He regretted extremely the turn affairs had taken. "Are you satisfied with that?" he asked, pointing to Mr. Mahon.

For answer Mr. Mahon rushed across the chamber. The two men clasped hands amid loud applause.

Mr. Smith, of Iowa, facetiously remarked that "as war had been the subject of the whole day's proceeding, resulting in almost a personal encounter," he thought the House was in no temper to proceed further with the fortification bill, and he accordingly moved that the committee rise.

CONGRESSIONAL.

By a vote 70 to 1 the Senate yesterday passed a bill providing that railway employes engaged in the handling of trains shall not work more than 16 consecutive hours, which period is to be followed by 10 hours off duty, the one negative vote being cast by Senator Pettus.

The bill making appropriations for the legislative, executive and judical expenses of the government was reported to the Senate yesterday. All propositions for raising the salaries of members of Congress and members of the Cabinet, including the provisions inserted by the House increasing the pay of Cabinet members, the Vice President and Speaker of the House to $12,000 a year, were rejected. It is expected, however, that an amendment will be offered on the floor of the Senate to restore these items and also to raise the salaries of members of Congress.

The House passed the army appropriation bill, carrying $70,000,000 and took up the fortifications appropriation bill under general debate.

The House passed a bill requiring licensing of officers of vessels of 700 tons carrying passengers.

PONCE AND MARACAS SAFE.

Bermuda, Jan. 11.—The long missing steamer Ponce arrived here today in distress in tow of the steamer Wabble.

Bermuda, Jan. 11.—In tow of the tugs Gladiaten and Powerful, the steamer Ponce is being towed to Murray's anchorage. A message flashed to the signal station on shore says that all of the passengers and crew are safe. The boat's delay was due to a broken shaft.

New York, Jan. 11.—General Manager Mooney, of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company, to which the Ponce belonged, received a cablegram from Bermuda this morning, which said:

"Ponce off Bermuda in tow of tramp Wabble. "Farrell."

Mr. Mooney said he had no idea who Farrell is except that it is probably a commission house there. Further details will be given and Mr. Mooney at once cabled to Bermuda for a full report of the vessel's long trip.

The Ponce left Porto Rico for New York on Christmas Day, and was sighted by the Shenandoah at 11 a. m. on December 28. That was the last seen of the vessel until she was sighted in tow of the tramp steamer Wabble today putting into Bermuda.

The marine department of the Postal Telegraph Company suggests that inasmuch as no vessel named the Wabble is registered the rescuer of the Ponce probably it is the German steamer Wangard, which left Savannah, Ga., on January 4, for Bremen.

New York, Jan. 11.—The steamer Maracas, three days overdue, from Trinidad and Grenada, arrived today. A break in the Maracas' machinery caused her delay. The Maracas encountered smooth sailing during the entire trip.

Germany and the Congo.

Berlin, Jan. 11.—Germany may take the lead among the nations in demanding a rearranging of Congo affairs. A campaign of agitation pointing out that German trade and industry sustain a great loss through a system which places a monopoly in the hands of King Leopold, of Belgium, has been inaugurated, and it is announced that the government may be forced to act. One of the first subjects to be called to the attention of the new Reichstag will be the Congo situation. It is the duty of the Reichstag, agitators argue, to see that German trade is given the possibilities guaranteed it under the Berlin treaty. Establishing a German consulate in the Congo state is urged as the first step necessary in this direction. Had the principle of the open door been maintained in the Congo German trade would have profited immensely. If the powers interfere in Congo affairs, to see that conditions are altered, Germany's interest, it is pointed out, must be protected.

Mysterious Deaths.

New York, Jan. 11.—Coroner's Physician Weston today visited the morgue to hold an autopsy on the bodies of Shamus McManus and a companion believed to be Frank Keenan, who were found dead last night in their room at 222 east Eleventh street. The police are divided between the theory that the death of the men was the result of a suicide pact or may be connected with the recent strike of magazine printers, as both men are printers. In their room was a whisky flask almost empty. A printer's union card signed by D. F. Godfrey and N. Seigel, and a card with his name and address as "Evening News, Newark," was found in Keenan's pockets. There was also a letter indicating he was a delegate to a "defense committee."

Destructive Fire.

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 11.—Fire in the plants of the Federal Cigar Company, and the S. R. Moss Cigar Company, two of the largest tobacco concerns, seriously threatened the entire warehouse district of the city this morning. The fire was finally brought under control at noon, after it had burned for four hours. Both tobacco factories were destroyed and five dwellings were burned. Later estimates raise the damage to $750,000. A large warehouse of the American Tobacco Company where $100,000 worth of tobacco was stored had a narrow escape. Firemen had several escapes from being buried under walls, which collapsed. The fire is said to have been caused by defective wiring.

The Pope's Letter to French Bishops.

Paris, Jan. 11.—In a letter to the French bishops, which arrived today, Pope Pius justifies his attitude toward the French law for the separation of church and state and thanks the bishops for the unity they have shown in opposing the law under the instructions of the Vatican. Compliance with the amendments to the law made recently by Parliament is forbidden the clergy. The pope describes the measure as "tantamount to anarchy, arbitrariness and uncertainty." While the church is seeking neither civil war nor persecution, Pius announces it is ready to undergo persecution of necessity.

Dr. Amador Retires.

New York, Jan. 11.—Dr. Raoul Amador, youngest son of the President of the Republic of Panama, has retired from the post of Consul-General in New York, from the Isthmian Republic, it is announced, today. This step has followed close upon the notoriety given by the suits Mrs. Bertha K. Gresham brought against him, charging that he was the father of her child. As a representative of a foreign government, he evaded service. The matter is now in the hands of the State Department. He will be succeeded by his elder brother, Martin Amador, now Panama's diplomatic representeativ at Hamburg.

Grand Jury After Lynchers.

Charles City, Iowa, Jan. 11.—The grand jury was instructed by Judge Kelly today to conduct a rigid investigation with a view of placing blame for the lynching of James Cullen in this city, Wednesday. The judge denounced lynchers as murderers, and said Cullen who had killed his wife and stepson was entitled to the full protection of the law from a mob.

OVER THREE HUNDRED PERONS PERISH.

The Hague, Jan. 11.—Three hundred persons perished on the Island of Tana, and scores are missing because of a tidal wave, which swept over some of the Dutch East Indian Islands, south of Achin.

Forty persons were drowned on the Island of Simalua, and reports from other islands state that the loss of life is large.

The Pennsylvania Needs the Money.

New York, Jan. 11.—Bankers and railroad men were astounded today over the announcement that the Pennsylvania Railroad needed $200,000,000 more to complete its improvements. With a market clogged with securities and the money market of the world in the coils of a money squeeze the news of the stupendous capital increase of the Pennsylvania created wide apprehension.

Wall street now realizes that the late President A. J. Cassart was millions short in his estimates of what would be required to increase the road's facilities.

Thousands of shares of Pennsylvania were thrown on the market today by share holders.

Attention was called on the floor of the exchange that within six years the capitalization of the Pennsylvania railroad had increased from $217,000,000 to $800,000,000.

Within half an hour, after the opening Pennsylvania fell four points to 135½.

The directors of the Pennsylvania say the increasing traffic demands the new capital and in order to keep its business the road must spend money for improvements.

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—Local financial and railroads circles here believe that the election of Mr. Frick to the board of directors of the Pennsylvania, means a big change and possibly that the ownership of the railroad has undergone a radical change. The railroad and financial community have in the last few days been putting two and two together, and, consequence have reached the conclusion that some very far-reaching plans have been quietly worked out by the railroad giants without the outside world obtaining the slightest inkling of the same.

It these suspicions prove correct, one of the greatest coups in the history of the railroad world will have been perfected and the idea of consolidation of transcontinental traffic management completed beyond the most sanguine expectations of the originators of the scheme.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure containers have had a warning printed on them against Opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by F. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

The Thaw Case.

New York, Jan. 11.—Harry Thaw will never be brought to trial for the killing of Architect Stanford White, and some time before January 21, the date set for the trial, his counsel will ask the appointment of a commission to test the present sanity of the young Pittsburger.

This is the positive opinion of officials of the district attorney's office who have the Thaw case in charge. In accordance with this belief, the prosecution has notified its insanity experts, Doctors MacDonald, Flint and Mahon, to hold themselves in readiness and make no engagements that might conflict with a possible appearance before a sanitary commission.

Harry Thaw's counsel was seen today, but would not indicate whether he would ask for a lunacy commission. Thaw angrily opposes every effort to have him consent to enter a plea of insanity.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw opposes the plan to have a lunacy commission appointed.

Justice Fitzgerald, will, in all probability, try Thaw if the case goes on trial. The justice last night ordered a special panel of two hundred talesmen from which to select the Thaw jury.

The Eliza Furnace Disaster.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 11.—Another of the victims of the Eliza furnace disaster died at the Mercy Hospital today. The hospital authorities were unable to learn his name. The total known dead as the result of the disaster now numbers 11.

Today's reports from the hospitals concerning the condition of the injured is not reassuring. Several are now said to be in an extremely critical condition.

A report was current at the Eliza furnace today that four additional charred bodies had been discovered. No official at the plant, however, would confirm this, and no report has been made at the office of the company. Early today a human foot was found in the slag. It was supposed to belong to the victim not already accounted for. This would bring the list of known dead up to 12. Today the ladle which contained the molten metal, into which one of the laborers had jumped after being crazed from his injuries, was taken into the Eliza plant and its contents removed. A small portion of bones or ashes had been recovered.

Harriman, and on the list are William Rockefeller, Jacob Schiff, head of the firm of Kune, Loeb & Co., Henry H. Rogers and H. C. Frick. One Hundred Miners Entombed.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 11.—One hundred miners have been entombed as a result of a cave in at the Schloss mines in Calhoun county, according to a telephone report just received here. It is not known if any of the men were killed outright, but owing to the extent of the cave-in, it will be several hours before they can be reached. The accident is said to have been caused by defective timbering. One rescue party has already entered the mine and another is being organized. No details of the collapse have been received.

A "Solar Plexus" Blow.

New York, Jan. 11.—Young Corbett has received a knockout punch, a heart jolt in the form of the announcement of the engagement of Miss Neva Aymar, the actress, to Jimmy Britt. Before Miss Aymar went on the road with the "Rain Dears," it was believed that she would marry Young Corbett. Broadway is puzzling on two questions today. They are: "Did Corbett know before the fight, or was Miss Aymar waiting to hear the returns from the fight to decide whether she would throw over the Denverite for Britt?"

An order for a special panel of jurors to try Harry K. Thaw was signed by Justice Fitzgerald in the Supreme Court at New York yesterday. The order calls for 200 talesmen to appear in Court Jan. 21. Assaulted and Robbed.

Mr. Thomas Logan, of Remington, Fauquier county, a nephew of the late William Legg, of this city, reached Alexandria last night and, after visiting a public house on King street, where he drank a glass of beer and ate a sandwich, started shortly after 11 o'clock for the residence of his cousin, Charles Mankin, on Patrick street, between Cameron and Queen. He was later found by policemen bleeding on Mankins' pavement, when he told the officers that he had been assaulted by an unknown man who knocked him down with a "blackjack" and robbed him. Logan said the man flourished a pistol while he was rifling his pockets. He said he had been relieved of about $30 in one and two dollar bills. His satchel was not taken by the footpad. Logan was conducted to the station house where his wounds were dressed by Dr. L. C. Smith.

The police made further investigation this morning. They ascertained that Logan went to Mr. Mankin's house and the latter being away from home at the time, Mrs. Mankin refused admission to him. He remained on the sidewalk until Mr. Mankin arrived, but the latter also was averse to entertaining him as he bore evidence of having been drinking freely. Mr. Mankin suggested that Logan go to the station house and remain there during the night. According to neighbors, a strange man was seen with Logan before he was found by the police. Logan carried a satchel which was found on the sidewalk.

The Wright Case.

The Court of Appeals on Thursday heard arguments in the case of Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, the negro under sentence of death in Alexandria for alleged rape on Mabel Risley (now Mrs. Forrest Gooding), who was assaulted outside the entrance of Luna Park, a public resort near this city, on September 9th.

The condemned man absolutely denies complicity in the crime, and the brief of his counsel is undoubtedly a strong paper, though one should not forget that it is ex parte.

Attorney General Anderson, who is representing the State, on the other hand, says in his brief: "It is difficult to conceive of a case of this character in which the evidence would more conclusively establish the fact that the crime charged had been committed, and had been perpetrated by a negro man as charged, than the testimony of the five uncontradicted and unimpeached witnesses who testified as to what occurred at and about the time when the crime is

Chamber of Commerce.

The first annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Alexandria was held at their rooms, southeast corner of King and Washington streets, last night, and was fully attended.

Unlawful Speed.

Considerable complaint is made of fast driving in the streets of this city. Accidents have in some instances been narrowly averted, especially when reckless drivers of teams make turns at corners without checking the gait of horses in their charge. Chapter V, section XX of the city laws reads as follows;

"No person shall drive, or cause to transgression."

The Steamer Newport News.

The Norfolk & Washington Steamboat Company's steamer Newport News will arrive at the shipyard in the course of the next few weeks to undergo extensive alterations and a through overhauling from stem to starn. She will remain at the yard for several weeks. New deck houses are to be erected on the steamer's hurricane deck, giving her an addition of about forty new staterooms and an increased carrying capacity of from 50 to 100 passengers. The steamer's passenger capacity is being increased so as to facilitate the handling of passengers during the Jamestown exposition.—[Newport News Press.

Death of Col. White.

Col. Elijah V. White died at his home in Leesburg last night of paralysis—the third stroke he had suffered in the past few years. Col. White was the president of the People's Bank, of Leesburg, and was identified with many of the business enterprises in that city. During the civil war Col. White was the commander of White's Battalion of cavalry, one of the most daring organizations in the Confederate army, and often struck terror to vastly superior forces on the federal side. He was beloved by his men and had the confidence of all the officers in the army with whom he was associated. After the war he returned to Loudoun county and resumed farming. He was an elder in the Primitive Baptist Church and frequently conducted services in this city. His death will be regretted by all who knew him.

U. S. Court.

[Judge Edmund Waddill presiding.]

After the Gazette's report closed yesterday the jury awarded Doctor Joseph A. Thompson, formerly of Alexandria county, $5 damages against the National Bank of Fairfax. Dr. Thompson claimed $5,000 damages, alleging that his good name and credit had been injured by the refusal of the bank, without just cause, to honor one of his checks.

Today's proceedings—Alexandria National Bank vs. Willis C. Bates Company; a suit to recover from Willis C. Bates Company $2,752, the case growing out of the cashing of a draft drawn by A. H. Death of Mrs. Evans.

Mrs. Emma Evans, wife of Mr. Paul R Evans, died at her home on south Henry street this morning. The deceased had for some time been in failing health and had recently been paralyzed. Mrs. Evans was a daughter of the late John Brown, of West End, and was 72 years old. She leaves four children, three sons and one daughter. A singular coincidence in connection with Mrs. Evans's death may be mentioned. Her sister, Mrs. Mary Watkins, died on Friday three weeks ago at 7:05 o'clock and Mrs. Evans's death occurred at 7:30 this morning.

Woman's Auxiliary.

A meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, to R. E. Lee Camp was held yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. E. H O'Brien, on Cameron street, to make arrangements for the R. E. Lee banquet to be held on the 19th of this month, in Confederate Veteran's building. The banquet will be under the same management as that of last year, when the menu prepared by the ladies was "fit for a king" and which will be repeated again this year.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Jan. 11.

SENATE.

When the Senate met today Mr. Latimer reported from the committee on agriculture a resolution directing the Secretary of Agriculture to make investigation of the swamp lands of the United States, amounting in the aggregate to 100,000 acres, with a view to future drainage in the interests of agriculture and public health. His request for immediate consideration met with an objection by Mr. Kean. All life was taken out of the report when Mr. Hale, the Senate leader, had it sent to the calendar, where it will die with the session.

Efforts to get the federal government interested in swamp lands, particularly in the South, have been pressed for several years.

When the Senate resumed consideration of the service pension bill Mr. Gallinger withdrew his proposed amendment, making a flat rate of $12 a month. This left the measure providing the following schedule for all survivors of the civil war: 62 years, $12 a month; 70 years, $15 a month; 75 years $20 a month.

An amendment offered by Mr. Warner, cutting off pension attorneys and other agents from any compensation under the act, was agreed to.

An amendment presented by Mr. Carmack, making the bill applicable to veterans of the war with Mexico, who had served sixty days, was agreed to.

During the debate Mr. Teller spoke of the civil war as the "war of the rebellion," upon the suggestion of Mr. Carmack the words, were changed to "civil war." Mr. Money said he was a "rebel," and so was George Washington.

Mr Bacon said that the term "rebel" had been used as an odious one. "What essarily be offensive," I such it is to me." afternoon passed a ice pension to super- and Mexican wars. as then passed. hat any person who r more in the military of the United States war or sixty days in nd who has been ed therefrom, and who has reached the age of sixty years or over shall, upon making proof of such of fact according to such rules and regulations, as the secretary of the interior may be placed upon the pensions roll, and be entitled to receive a pension.

[illegible]

HOUSE.

With 628 private pension bills under his arm, Chairman Sulloway, of the House committee on pensions, gave promise of breaking all records today when he secured the floor for their consideration upon the convening of the House. Old timers say it has been years since the House considered six hundred pension bills in one day, and some say the bills which have accumulated for weeks are the largest number ever presented.

The House beat the world's record today by passing 623 bills in one hour and thirty five minutes. They were private pension bills. Five bills were laid on the table making 628 bills considered. Representative Caperon, (rep. R. I.,) was in the chair as chairman of the committee of the whole. The job was accomplished before 1:45 when the House adjourned until Monday.

The Southern Planter for January comes to us from its Richmond publishers in a new cover and presents a very handsome appearance. Among its table of contents are a variety of well-written, instructive and interesting articles.

City of Alexandria, to-wit:

On this, the 9th day of January, 1907, before me, the subscriber, a notary public for the city of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, personally appeared Justus Schneider, the Secretary of the German Co-operative Building Association No. 5 of Alexandria, Va., and made oath that the annexed statement, to which his name is signed, is true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Given under my hand the day and year first aforesaid.

JOHN D. NORMOYLE, Notary Public.

Origin of Croquet.

The origin of croquet is certainly involved in mystery. Some authorities are of the opinion that it is founded on the old game of "pale maille," or pell-mell, from which we have the street Pall Mall. This is described by Cotgrave in his dictionary as "a game wherein a round box bowle is with a mallet struck through a high arch of yron," and a picture of this in Strutt's "Sports and Pastimes" shows that these had a strong resemblance to the croquet implements of today.—London Academy.

Female Weakness

"Last Fall," writes Mrs. S. G. Bailey, of Tunnelton, W. Va., "I was going down by inches, from female disease, with great pain. After taking Cardui, Oh! My! How I was benefited! I am not well yet, but am so much better that I will keep on taking Wine of Cardui till I am perfectly cured."

Despite the envious attacks of jealous enemies and rivals, Cardui still holds supreme position today [as in the past 70 years] for the relief and cure of female diseases. It stops pain, tones up the organs, regulates the functions, and aids in the replacement of a misplaced organ.

Alexandria Gazette.

FRIDAY EVENING, JAN. 11, 1907.

The Late Queen of Hanover.

Princess Mary of Saxe-Altenburg, former Queen of Hanover, who died yesterday, had been suffering for some time past from inguinal bernia, necessitating an operation which was performed January 6.

Princess Mary was born at Hildeburghausen, April 14, 1818, and was married at Hanover, February, 18, 1843, to Prince George, afterward King George V. of Hanover, who died June 12, 1878. The deceased princess was a cousin of the present King of England and mother of the Duke of Cumberland, claimant to the throne of Hanover. In 1866 the kingdom of Hanover was annexed to Prussia, and King George V. was dethroned because the Hanoverians took the Anstrian side in the war with Prussia.

Piles get quick relief from Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. Remember its made alone for Piles—and it works with certainly and satisfaction. Itching, painful, protruding, or blind piles disappear like magic by its use. Try it and see! Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Army Canteen Club.

A movement has been started in Washington by a number of ladies, friends and relatives of the American soldiers, having for its principal object the restoration of the army canteen. To accomplish this end the ladies have formed a society to be known as "The Army Canteen Club," and have taken steps to form similar clubs in the States. As a result of their extension work Army Canteen Clubs are said to have been inaugurated in Chicago, Cincinnati, and at several places in New York State. It is proposed to continue "adding links to the chain, until we cover the American continent from Maine to California and southward to Florida."

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, and safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure is for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

To Suppress Fruit Disease.

The Fairfax County Board of Supervisors on Monday appropriated $1,000 for the enforcement of the Virginia crop pest law in that county. Six inspectors are to be appointed under the law with power to examine all fruit orchards and condemn trees found to be afflicted with contagious disease. It is hoped by this means to stamp out the fatal disease known as "yellows," which has devastated so many peach orchards in northern Virginia.

Mothers who give their children Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup invariably indorse it. Contains Honey and Tar. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills drive the poison from the body. A 25 cent box holds a week's treatment. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
